SOCIAL MEDIA ACTION PACK

#AntiBullyingWeek
#AllDifferentAllEqual - #OddSocks
INTRODUCTION

Anti-Bullying Week 2017 is happening from Monday 13th – Friday 17th November and has the theme ‘All Different, All Equal’. It is coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance but owned by the entire anti-bullying sector.

THE AIMS ARE TO:

• Empower children and young people to celebrate what makes them, and others, unique.
• Help children and young people to understand how important it is that every child feels valued and included in school, able to be themselves, without fear of bullying.
• Encourage parents and carers to work with their school and talk to their children about bullying, difference and equality.
• Enable teachers and school support staff to celebrate what makes us ‘all different, all equal’ by celebrating difference and equality and taking individual and collective action to prevent bullying, creating safe environments where children can be themselves.

All of the ideas in this pack are designed to help you promote Anti-Bullying Week on your social media channels.

It’s your Anti-Bullying Week too. We want to promote what you’re doing! Please share your activity with us on social media - We want to see your resources, videos, photos, artwork and messages.

Remember to use the hashtags #AntiBullyingWeek and #AllDifferentAllEqual in your posts, so we can re-share your messages on the Anti-Bullying Alliance’s social media channels.

ODD SOCKS DAY FOR ANTI-BULLYING WEEK MONDAY 13TH NOVEMBER 2017

This year we are excited to have support from our new Anti-Bullying Alliance patron, Andy Day and his band, Andy and the Odd Socks.

Andy Day is one of the most popular children’s TV presenters in the country. He has worked with children for over 10 years, and is a favourite amongst children and parents alike. He has a lot of experience working with children, and understands the importance of being yourself, and the challenges that can sometimes bring.

WHAT IS ODD SOCKS DAY?

As part of Anti-Bullying Week, on the first day, (Monday 13th November) we will be asking schools across the country to hold an ‘Odd Socks Day for Anti-Bullying Week’. Aimed at early years and primary school children, the day encourages young children to wear odd socks for the day, celebrating their uniqueness.

Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It’s an opportunity for children to express themselves and appreciate individuality. There is no pressure on the children to wear the latest fashion or for parents to buy expensive costumes. All they have to do to take part is wear odd socks to school, it couldn’t be simpler!

We would like to invite participating children to make a £1 donation (or anything you think is appropriate) to support the Anti-Bullying Alliance to continue running Anti-Bullying Week.

Please share your activity with us on social media. Use the hashtag #AntiBullyingWeek and #OddSocks We love to see what you’re doing. Share with us your videos, artwork and messages!

Anti-Bullying Week is coordinated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance (ABA) in England. We are a unique coalition of organisations and individuals, working together to achieve our vision to: stop bullying and create safer environments in which children and young people can live, grow, play and learn. We welcome membership from any organisation or individual that supports this vision and support a free network of thousands of schools and colleges.

ABA has three main areas of work:

1. Supporting learning and sharing best practice through membership;
2. Raising awareness of bullying through Anti-Bullying Week and other coordinated, shared campaigns;
3. Delivering programme work at a national and local level to help stop bullying and bring lasting change to children’s lives;

ABA is based at leading children’s charity the National Children’s Bureau.

We would like to extend our thanks to SafeToNet for supporting this year’s Anti-Bullying Week. SafeToNet are an award winning company using technology to protect children and young people online. Find out more at www.safetonet.com

We also extend our thanks to Unique Voice for the use of their film for Anti-Bullying Week 2017. Find out more about Unique Voice and the wider programme ‘Triple R’ that surrounds this film at www.uniquevoice.org

And finally we say thanks to our patron Andy Day, his band Andy and the Odd Socks and all his wonderful team.
